

1 IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
2 FOR THE DISTRICT OF PUERTO RICO

3 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

4 Plaintiff,

5 v.

6 CRIM. NO.: 11-241(DRD/SCC)

7 [92] JOE RUIZ-GARCIA,
8 Defendant.

10 MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION
RE: RULE 11 PROCEEDINGS (PLEA OF GUILTY)

11 I. Procedural Background

12 On January 19, 2012, defendant Joe Ruiz-Garcia (hereinafter, "defendant"), assisted and 13 represented by Ovidio Zayas, Esq., pled guilty to Count One of the superseding indictment.

14 The defendant has agreed to plead guilty to Count One of the superseding indictment. Count
15 One charges that from in or about February 1998, and continuing up to and until the date of the 16 Superseding Indictment, in and near La Perla Ward, San Juan, District of Puerto Rico, and within the 17 jurisdiction of this Court, the defendant and other persons did knowingly and intentionally combine,
18 conspire, and agree with each other and with diverse other persons known and unknown to the Grand
19 Jury, to commit an offense against the United States, that is, to knowingly and intentionally possess with 20 intent to distribute and/or to distribute controlled substances, to wit: in excess of one (1) kilogram of 21 heroin, a Schedule I Narcotic Drug Controlled Substances; and/or in excess of five (5) kilograms of 22 cocaine, a Schedule II Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance; and/or in excess of one thousand (1000)
23 kilograms of marijuana, a Schedule I Controlled Substance; within one thousand (1000) feet of the real
24 property comprising a public or private school and/or public housing project and/or a playground, as
25 prohibited by Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and 860, all in violation of Title 21,
26 United States Code, Section 846.

II. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge

In open court, the defendant was questioned as to the purpose of the hearing being held and was advised of: (a) the nature and purpose of the hearing; (b) the fact that all inquiries were to be conducted under oath and that it was expected that his answers would be truthful; (c) the potential consequences of lying under oath (such as a perjury charge); and (d) his right to have the change of plea proceedings presided by a district judge instead of a magistrate judge. The defendant was also explained the differences between the appointment and functions of the two. The defendant consented to proceed before the undersigned magistrate judge.

III. Proceedings Under Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure

A. Rule 11(c)(1) Requirements

Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure governs the acceptance of guilty pleas to federal criminal violations. Pursuant to Rule 11, in order for a plea of guilty to constitute a valid waiver of the defendant's right to trial, guilty pleas must be knowing and voluntary: "Rule 11 was intended to ensure that a defendant who pleads guilty does so with an 'understanding of the nature of the charge and consequences of his plea.'" United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d 1, 4 (1st Cir. 1995) (quoting McCarthy v. United States, 394 U.S. 459, 467 (1969)). [There are three core concerns in these proceedings]: 1) absence of coercion; 2) understanding of the charges; and 3) knowledge of the consequences of the guilty plea. United States v. Cotal-Crespo, 47 F.3d at 4 (citing United States v. Allard, 926 F.2d 1237, 1244-45 (1st Cir. 1991)).

United States v. Hernández-Wilson, 186 F.3d 1, 5 (1st Cir. 1999).

B. Admonishment of Constitutional Rights

To assure defendant's understanding and awareness of his rights, defendant was advised of his right:

1. To remain silent at trial and be presumed innocent, since it is the government who has the burden of proving him guilty beyond a reasonable doubt;
2. To testify or not to testify at trial, and that no adverse inference could be made in relation to his decision not to testify;
3. To a speedy trial before a district judge and a jury, at which he would be entitled to see and cross examine the government witnesses, present evidence on his behalf, and challenge the government's evidence;

4. To have a unanimous verdict rendered by a jury of twelve persons which would have to be
5 convinced of defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt by means of admissible evidence;
6 and

5. To use the subpoena power of the court to compel the attendance of witnesses.

6 Upon listening to the defendant's responses, observing his demeanor and his speaking with his
7 attorney, that to the best of counsel's belief defendant had fully understood his rights, it is determined
8 that defendant is aware of his constitutional rights.

9 C. Consequences of Pleading Guilty

10 Upon advising defendant of his constitutional rights, he was further advised of the consequences
11 of pleading guilty. Specifically, defendant was advised that by pleading guilty and upon having his 12 guilty plea accepted by the court, he will be giving up the above rights and will be convicted solely on 13 his statement that he is guilty.

14 Furthermore, the defendant was admonished of the fact that by pleading guilty he would not be
15 allowed later on to withdraw his plea because he eventually might disagree with the sentence imposed,
16 and that if he violates the conditions of supervised release, that privilege could be revoked and he could
17 be required to serve an additional term of imprisonment. He was also explained that parole has been 18 abolished.

19 In response to further questioning, defendant was explained and he understood the following:
20 That the maximum penalty for the offense charged in Count One of the indictment is a term of
21 imprisonment of not less than ten (10) years or more than life, a fine not to exceed $4,000,000, and a
22 term of supervised release of at least five (5) years, all pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section
23 841(b)(1)(A). That in accordance with Title 21, United States Code, Section 860, the maximum penalties
24 would be twice that of Section 841, and at least twice the term of supervised release authorized by 25 Section 841. But that, based on the stipulated and agreed amount of narcotics possessed by the 26 defendant, that is, at least five hundred (500) grams, but less than two (2) kilograms of cocaine, the 27 penalty for the offense shall be a term of imprisonment of not less than five (5) but up to forty (40) years, a fine not to exceed five million dollars ($5,000,000), and a term of supervised release of at least four (4) years, all pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 841(b)(1)(B); however, in accordance with Title 21, United States Code, Section 860, the maximum penalties would be twice that of Section 841(b)(1)(B), and at least twice the term of supervised release authorized by Section 841(b)(1)(B). Defendant was also made aware that the court must impose a special mandatory penalty assessment of one hundred dollars ($100) per offense pursuant Title 18, United States Code, Section 3013(a).
28

The defendant was advised that the ultimate sentence was a matter solely for the court to decide in its discretion and that, even if the maximum imprisonment term and fine were to be imposed upon him, he later could not withdraw his guilty plea for that reason alone. The defendant understood this.

The defendant acknowledged that at this stage no guarantees or promises as to the sentence to be imposed had been made to him. The defendant was also explained what the supervised release term means and was urged to cooperate with the United States Probation Office.

D. Plea Agreement

The parties have entered into a written plea agreement that, upon being signed by the government, defense attorney and defendant, was filed and made part of the record. Defendant was clearly warned and recognized having understood that:

1. The plea agreement is not binding upon the sentencing court;
2. The plea agreement is an agreement between the defendant, defense counsel and the attorney for the government which is presented as a recommendation to the court in regards to the applicable sentencing adjustments and guidelines, which are advisory;
3. The agreement provides a sentencing recommendation and/or anticipated sentencing guideline computation, that can be either accepted or rejected by the sentencing court; and
4. In spite of the plea agreement and any sentencing recommendation contained therein, the sentencing court retains full discretion to reject such plea agreement and impose any sentence up to the maximum possible penalty prescribed by statute.

Defendant acknowledged having understood this explanation.

E. Government's Evidence (Basis in Fact)

The government presented a proffer of its evidence, with which the defendant concurred. Accordingly, it is determined that there is a basis in fact and evidence to establish all the elements of the offense charged.

F. Voluntariness

The defendant accepted that no threats had been made to induce him to plead guilty and that he did not feel pressured to plead guilty. He came to the hearing for the purpose of pleading guilty and listened attentively as the prosecutor outlined the facts which would have been proven had the case proceeded to trial.

11

G. Special Warnings

12

The defendant was explained, and he understood, that if the court accepts the plea agreement and sentences him according to its terms and conditions, he will be surrendering his right to appeal the sentence and judgment in this case.

15

IV. Conclusion

16

The defendant, by consent, has appeared before me pursuant to Rule 11, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and has entered a plea of guilty as to Count One of the superseding indictment. The defendant also acknowledged the forfeiture allegations. After cautioning and examining the defendant under oath and in open court concerning each of the subject matters mentioned in Rule 11, as described in the preceding sections, I find that the defendant is competent to enter this guilty plea, is aware of the nature of the offense charged and the maximum statutory penalties that the same carries, understands that the charge is supported by the government's evidence, has admitted to every element of the offense charged, and has done so in an intelligent and voluntary manner with full knowledge of the consequences of his guilty plea. Therefore, I recommend that the court accept the guilty plea of the defendant and that the defendant be adjudged guilty as to Count One of the superseding indictment.

26

This report and recommendation is filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and Rule 72(d) of the Local Rules of Court. Any objections to the same must be specific and must be filed with the

2 Clerk of Court within fourteen (14) days of its receipt. Rule 72(d), Local Rules of Court; Fed. R. Civ.
3 P. 72(b)(2). Failure to timely file specific objections to the report and recommendation is a waiver of 4 the right to review by the district court. United States v. Valencia-Copete, 792 F.2d 4 (1st Cir. 1986).
